

The background features a detailed botanical illustration. At the top left, there is a large, feathery leaf with intricate vein patterns. To its right, a branch with several small, five-petaled flowers and buds extends across the frame. Below these, a branch with three star-shaped flowers and small evergreen-like leaves is visible. In the center, the text 'Old Music shop' is written in a dark brown, elegant cursive font. To the left of the text, a small branch with several pointed leaves is shown. At the bottom left, a branch with larger, rounded leaves and small buds is depicted. At the bottom center, a branch with a single large, colorful leaf (featuring green, yellow, and red spots) is shown. On the right side, there are several large, stylized flowers in various shades of blue and green, some with dark centers. The overall composition is a delicate and artistic representation of nature's elements.
