

The background features a light blue watercolor wash. Overlaid on this are several botanical illustrations in white and light blue line art. At the top left, there is a large, detailed leaf with prominent veins and a smaller, feathery branch. To the right, a long, thin stem curves upwards, bearing several clusters of small, oval leaves and tiny buds. In the center, a branch with several five-petaled star-shaped flowers is visible. Below the text, there are more branches with leaves and flowers, including a large, multi-petaled flower on the right and a branch with small, colorful dots (possibly representing seeds or pollen) at the bottom center. The overall aesthetic is soft and artistic.
