

The background is a light blue watercolor wash. Overlaid on this are several botanical line drawings. In the top left, there's a branch with a large, pointed leaf and a cluster of small, feathery leaves. To its right is a branch with small, oval leaves and tiny buds. In the center, a long, thin stem curves upwards, with a branch of small, five-petaled flowers and a large, elongated leaf with fine, parallel veins. In the bottom left, there's a branch with small, five-petaled flowers and a branch with small, oval leaves. In the bottom right, there are several large, stylized flowers in shades of blue and purple, with green leaves. At the very bottom center, there's a small, colorful, abstract shape resembling a leaf or a flower bud with green, yellow, and red dots.
